Process to manage Criteo's banners via Browser Options

There are Internet browsers which include options to disable Criteo's cookies permanently.

The process to disable Criteo banners depends on the browser you use. This document outlines the different steps to get there.

Only some Browsers allow the exclusion of cookies from Criteo. For the others, the only way to exclude Criteo cookies is to refuse cookies only from sites you visit or to block all cookies following the instructions below.
